

JAPANESE SOCIETY OF INTERNATIONAL LAW
PROGRAMME OF THE 127TH ANNUAL MEETING (2024)*

2 – 4 September 2024

Day 1

SESSION 1: “PERSPECTIVES” ON INTERNATIONAL LAW

Monday, 2 September, 14:00-17:30

Chair: YAKUSHIJI Kimio, Professor Emeritus, Ritsumeikan University

1. Third World Approaches to International Law ——History, Content and Significance
NISHIUMI Maki, Professor, Chuo University
2. Feminist Approaches to International Law——International Legal Perspectives without Creating “Others”
OMI Miho, Professor, Kanagawa University
3. Language in International Law—— “Point of View” and “Blind Spot”
NAKAI Aiko, Professor, Osaka Metropolitan University
4. The Deep Structure behind the Campaign for a Chinese School of International Law——Recombining the Romanticism and Realism through Sino-centric Initiative
WANG Zhi-an, Professor, Komazawa University

Day 2

SESSION 2: The Honourable Shigeru Oda Commemorative Lectures

Theme: The Future of Collective Security

Tuesday, 3 September, 10:00-13:00

Chair: UEKI Toshiya, Professor, Tohoku University

* All the presentations except for those in the The Honourable Shigeru Oda Commemorative Lectures will be made in Japanese.

1. Is the Future for Collective Security Regional? —Assessing Current Challenges to Regional and Sub-regional Security Frameworks in Africa

Erika DE WET, Professor, University of Graz

2. Reappraising Collective Security with Expanded Security Concepts

KATAYANAGI Mari, Professor, Hiroshima University

3. Light and Shadow of the UN Collective Security System—Insights from the Perspective of the UN Security Council’s Chapter VII Authorization of the Use of Force

SATO Ryosuke, Professor, Seijo University

SESSION 3: PARALLEL THREE PANELS

Tuesday, 3 September, 14:30-17:30

PANEL 1: TEMPORAL PERSPECTIVES

Chair: SAKAI Hironobu, Professor, Waseda University

1. Colonialism, Past and Present —“Law” and Injustice Experienced in Africa

TODA Makiko, Professor, Kyoto Women’s University

2. Science and Identity—Overcoming Racism and Positioning Human Remains as Natural History Properties

SATO Yoshiaki, Professor, Seikei University

3. Revisiting “the so-called Intertemporal Law”

HUH Sookyeon, Professor, Rikkyo University

4. Development of Legal Techniques to Safeguard the Interests of Future Generations

ABE Kie, Assistant Professor, Kobe University

PANEL 2: HUMAN RIGHTS PERSPECTIVES: HUMAN LIBERATION OR IMPOSITION OF VALUES?

Chair: MAEDA Naoko, Professor, Kyoto Women's University

1. The Impact of Human Rights on Private International Law——Focusing on International Jurisdiction

NAKAMURA Chisato, Associate Professor, Kobe University

2. State and Diplomatic Immunities in Human Rights Violation Cases——Recent Developments in Practice

SAKAMAKI Shizuka, Professor, University of Shizuoka

3. Human Rights over Peace? ——Rethinking Peace and Justice in/after Conflict

SHIMOYACHI Nao, Assistant Professor, Tsuda University

4. Conflict or Dialogue——“Business and Human Rights” from the Perspective of Developing Countries

WATANABE Ayako, Assistant Professor, Akita University

PANEL 3: NEW TRENDS IN HUMAN MOBILITY

Chair: OBATA Kaoru, Professor, Nagoya University

1. Refugees' Movement and “Securitization” in Africa—— How “Perceived Security” has been Shapter and Diffused in the Refugee Hosting Countries

SUGIKI Akiko, Professor, Keio University

2. Art. 33-2 of the 1951 Refugee Convention —— The Exceptions to the Principle of Non-Refoulement and Japan's New Immigration Law

HASHIMOTO Naoko, Associate Professor, International Christian University

3. Legal, but Illegitimate? —— Law and Politics of the EU's External Immigration Policies

DAIDOUJI Ryuya, Associate Professor, Aoyama Gakuin University

4. International Movement of Refugees and the Validity of Marriages

KITASAKA Naohiro, Professor, Fukuoka University

Day 3

SESSION 4: OPEN CALL SESSION

Wednesday, 4 September, 10:00-13:00

PANEL 1

Chair: HAYAKAWA Shinichiro, Professor, Senshu University

1. Public Policy and Human Rights Abuses by Multinational Companies—— Indirect Application of Human Rights Treaties

TERAI Risa, Associate Professor, Hiroshima City University

2. Development of Hard Law in Business and Human Rights—— Challenges from the Rights Holders Perspective

ITO Kazuko, Vice President, Human Rights Now

Chair: MURAKAMI Masanao, Professor, Nara University

3. The Doctrine of the Individual as a Derivative Subject of International Law

KATO Yuta, Lecturer, Tohoku Medical and Pharmaceutical University

PANEL 2

Chair: ABE Tatsuya, Professor, Aoyama Gakuin University

1. The Right of Self-Defence against Non-State Actors under the UN Charter—— Focusing on the Legal Status of the “Unwilling or Unable” Theory

MOTOYOSHI Yuki, Associate Professor, Nihon University

2. On the Invalidity of Treaties based on Coercion of a State

WAKASA Amuro, Associate Professor, Tokyo Keizai University

Chair: ABE Yoshinori, Professor, Gakushuin University

3. Significance and Challenges of Border Carbon Adjustments as Climate Policy——
Risk of WTO Disputes and Solutions

HAYAKAWA Osamu, Professor, Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University

SESSION 5: OPEN CALL AND OPEN CALL PANEL SESSIONS

Wednesday, 4 September, 14:30-17:30

PANEL 1

Chair: KAWANO Mariko, Professor, Waseda University

1. Incidental Jurisdiction in International Courts and Tribunals—— Possibility for Extension of Jurisdiction Ratione Materiae and its Problems

YAMASHITA Tsuyoshi, Research Fellow, Tohoku University

2. The Monetary Gold Principle before the ICJ Reconsidered

YAMAGATA Hideo, Professor, Nagoya University

Chair: SHIMOYAMA Kenji, Professor, Japan Coast Guard Academy

3. Port State Inspection against IUU Fishing—— Structural Changes in High Seas
Fisheries Regulations

RAITA Maiko, Associate Professor, Osaka University of Economics and Law

OPEN CALL PANEL: SDGS AND INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC LAW: PRESENT AND CHALLENGES

Chair: NAKAGAWA Junji, Professor, Chuo Gakuin University

1. Historical Examination of Relationship between Sustainable Development and International Economic Law—— Prototype Framework for Sustainable Development Envisaged by the ITO Charter

KOMETANI Kazumochi, Visiting Professor, University of Tokyo

2. Potential Contribution from Viewpoints of WTO to Advance SDGs
UMEJIMA Osamu, Professor, Takasaki City University of Economics
3. FTAs/EPAs and SDGs—— A Critical Analysis of Social Clause
HAMADA Taro, Professor, Senshu University
4. International Investment Agreements and Sustainability
FUKUNAGA Yuka, Professor, Waseda University